0.75 preme Court, Shanghai, before Chief Justice Hannen, by the American Trading Company against the Bank of China, Japan and the Straits, Limited, for breach of contract in connection with some transactions in exchange contracts. The amount sued for was Tls. 38,097.95. Evidence was heard at great length, and Chief Justice Hannen has now given judgment in favour of the plaintiffs for the full amount claimed, with costs. The judgment is much too lengthy 1 00 to reproduce, but it may be mentioned that the bankers' evidence as to custom was dead against the defendant Bank.

We are glad to hear that the three great Steamer Companies plying in these waters and in the North, whose energies have of late been again directed to cutting each other's throats, are likely to resume the habits of sanity. It is perhaps useless to 1.00 try to distribute blame to each of the three contestants, although of the red, yellow, and blue (or black), the China Navigation Co. has (rightly or wrongly) been credited Chartreuse, Dr. Siegert's Angostura with the monopoly of unreason and unwisdom during recent negotiations. Whatever may have been done in the past, however, we have resson to believe that wiser and more moderate counsels will now prevail, and there is every likelihood of the silly warfard coming to an end. There can be little doubt the contest has done no substantial good to anyone, not even to thippers, while the fight has done harm to everyone concerned. In these days of general depression, it may be some satisfaction to those interested in the companies referred to, to know that a satisfactory settlement of the differences is looked for before the end of the present month. -

In the affinity between the spelling and pronunciation of proper names the Chinese are alread of the British. Anyone possessing the most elementary knowledge of the pronunciation of the English equivalent of the Chinese characters would seldom make a mistake.
